

INHS Newsletter – May 2017

Dear INHS members,

Welcome to our May 2017 newsletter. There is an exciting conference announcement to share with you this month. The “4th International Conference on Hate Studies – Engaging with Communities for Justice” will take place from October 19th – 21st, 2017 at the Gonzaga University Institute for Hate Studies in Spokane, WA, USA.

This conference is one of the leading interdisciplinary academic forums on hate, related social problems, and ways to create socially just and inclusive communities. It convenes leading academics, journalists, law enforcement personnel, educators, representatives of governmental and non-governmental organizations, human rights experts, community organizers, activists, students, and others to discuss hatred and ways to engage communities with justice. Conference topics will address research, education, practice, and advocacy.

The presenter submission deadline is May 30th, 2017. For additional information, please visit the conference website, or contact Dr. Kristine Hoover, Director for the Institute of Hate Studies at againsthate@gonzaga.edu.
