

INHS Newsletter – December 2018

Dear INHS members,

Welcome to our December 2018 newsletter. This month's newsletter includes many new additions to the online library, interesting events around the world, a forthcoming funding opportunity from the Home Office (UK), and an announcement related to the Facing Facts Online course on hate speech described further below. This is our last newsletter of 2018 and we wish you all a fun-filled festive period and a very happy new year!

Preventing hate crime: Funding for community projects – Deadline 7th December 2018

The aim of the fund is to work with affected communities to fund the development of projects that: prevent hate crime; respond to hate crime in our communities; increase the reporting of hate crime; improve support for the victims of hate crime; build our understanding of hate crime. The Home Office (UK) is seeking to fund projects up to £75,000. Projects are expected to finish delivery by March 2020, with all invoices submitted by 31 March 2020. More information can be found here.

Join the Facing Facts Online course on hate speech - now available in German and French too!

Explore the course in German and French, with adapted course content and plenty of local examples and initiatives! Online hate speech is a global problem that needs a global solution. The majority of internet users have witnessed or been a victim of online harassment. It is time to stand up against hatred and take action! The Facing Facts course on online hate speech provides the perfect opportunity. For more information, please visit the Facing Facts Online website.
